MESSAGE

Assalamualaikum My Dear Brothers & Sisters,

My heart swells with gratitude and excitement for the opportunity to continue our cherished mission in mostly rural India, a journey fueled by love, care, and the spirit of giving. Now, as we celebrate over three decades of dedication through the Foundation for Economic & Educational Development (FEED), our commitment to nurturing and empowering through education and charitable work is stronger and more fervent than ever.

Our educational initiatives have seen remarkable growth, extending the reach of scholarships to the brightest yet most underserved students, and securing the future of orphaned children through comprehensive educational support. Our efforts have also spanned beyond the classrooms, addressing the critical needs of rural communities by providing sustainable access to clean water and timely assistance during their needs, thereby fortifying the resilience of these communities against multiple challenges.

As we stand at the threshold of this renewed commitment, I warmly invite you to recommit to this journey of hope, transformation, and empowerment. Let us continue to weave stories of success and fulfillment through the fabric of rural India. With each step forward, we pledge to uphold our values of compassion and service, ensuring that every effort contributes to a brighter, more promising future for the communities we serve.

Join us as we pledge to not just dream of a better tomorrow but to actively craft it with every action we take today.

With deepest gratitude and warmest wishes,

GHIASUDDIN BABUKHAN

OUR MISSION

Quality education; life and career building skills; helping women and providing assistance through charity in times of their needs. These are the core focus areas.

OUR VISION

Empowerment of the underprivileged, access to quality education and thereby achieving a brighter future.

OUR BELIEFS

Empowerment through education and freedom through knowledge is the guiding principle driving our organisations.

The Heart of Our Journey

In today's challenging world, fostering a resilient, educated generation is vital. Education not only protects our youth but also shapes them into empathetic, responsible adults, guiding societal progress. At FEED, we're committed to this cause, aiming for a bright future. Our mission transcends academic support, focusing on connecting deserving individuals with quality education through philanthropy and effective wealth distribution.

Empowering Futures: A Spectrum of Scholarships

At FEED, we're dedicated to fostering excellence across a broad spectrum of educational fields, focusing on medicine, engineering, law, CA, nursing and all other professional courses.

Our goal is to cultivate a generation of young, bright minds ready to steer their life and nation towards a prosperous future.
